1262. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have signed a bilateral agreement with China for review of anti-dumping policies on annual basis;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government have imposed high number of anti-dumping cases against chinese products in the past few years; and

(d) if so, to what extent the fresh agreement with China is going to resolve anti-dumping cases between both the countries?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI SATYABRATA MOOKHERJEE): (a) and (b) No, Sir. However a proposal to set up a discussion mechanism between the Directorate General of Anti-Dumping & Allied Duties (DGAD), Ministry of Commerce & Industry of the Republic of India and Bureau of Fair Trade for Imports & Exports of the Ministry of Commerce of PR China has been received. The proposal envisages holding discussions for promoting exchanges and cooperation in the area of trade remedy particularly anti-dumping and countervailing duty measures.

(c) Since 1992, the Directorate General of Anti Dumping & Allied Duties has initiated 166 cases. Out of these 166 cases, Chinese exporters are involved in 70 cases.

(d) The proposed discussion meachanism between the DGAD and Ministry of Commerce of PR China will not affect the anti-dumping cases. The proposal is to have discussions and exchange of technical information of the parties' respective ways of carrying out investigations and applying rules concerning trade defence instruments. The Authorities may draw upon individual cases that have been concluded but will not interfere with the legally established procedural and substantive framework or operation of ongoing investigations.
